

Greater Nevada Credit Union Scholarship Program

Scholarship Application Information for the 2025-2026 Academic Year

The 2025-2026 Greater Nevada Credit Union Scholarship Program is available to applicants who will be attending technical schools, universities, community colleges, and accredited trade and vocational schools in the 2025-2026 academic year.

The selection of recipients will prioritize demonstrated financial need while also considering academic performance, active participation in school and community activities, and strong letters of recommendation from educators, career professionals, and community leaders.

GUIDELINES:

- Recipients are not limited to only attending schools located in Nevada.
- Scholarship funds will be paid in two $1,000 installments (Fall 2025 and Spring 2026) directly to the school of the recipient's choice.
- Scholarship monies may be used for tuition, course registration, special classes, laboratory fees, room and board, textbooks, and class materials.
- Recipients will be limited to receiving only one scholarship and will not be eligible for this program in subsequent years.
- Scholarship recipients will be encouraged to complete a financial education course provided by Greater Nevada Credit Union.
- Recipients must earn a minimum of 24 credits per academic year, Fall and Spring semesters, and maintain full-time enrollment throughout each semester.

APPLICATION ELIGIBILITY AND REQUIREMENTS:

- Applicants must be a Greater Nevada member or the child, spouse, parent, grandparents, or legal guardian of a Greater Nevada member.
- Has not previously been awarded a Greater Nevada Credit Union Scholarship.
- Greater Nevada may, at its discretion, award a second continuing scholarship to a student who has had a successful preceding academic year and has demonstrated financial need.
- Recipients must attend school as full-time students during the 2025-2026 school year.
- Applicants must be 24 years or younger at the time of the application deadline.
- Recipients must be seeking an undergraduate degree. Postgraduate programs are not eligible, such as master's and doctorate programs.
- Greater Nevada employees, volunteers, directors, committee members, and their families will not be eligible for this program.
- The following documents must be submitted with your completed application:

- Personal Statement: This statement should showcase your academic interests, career aspirations, and extracurricular involvement. Detail your passion for your chosen field of study and how your academic pursuits align with your career goals. Describe your contributions to your school and community through clubs, organizations, volunteer work, or other meaningful activities. Additionally, share any relevant work experience, including internships, part-time jobs, or volunteer roles, and explain how these experiences have shaped your personal and professional growth. Please limit your statement to a maximum of 5,000 characters.
- Copy of your most recent college/high school transcript, or GED verification.
- Minimum of two (2) current letters of recommendation from school and community leaders (parents are ineligible).

The application with the required information listed above can be submitted electronically at www.gncu.org, mailed, or delivered by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 31, 2025. Mailed applications must be postmarked by March 31, 2024. For a list of Greater Nevada Credit Union branches, please consult our website at www.gncu.org
